

Freight Handlers Sought at Arsenal

Applications for permanent federal employment from men interested in jobs as munitions and freight handlers, at pay rates of 88 cents to $1.12 an hour, are now being accepted by the executive secretary, board of U. S. Civil Service examiners for the Joliet Arsenal.

They will be accepted until the needs of the service have been met. No written test will be given. Applicants must, however, show in their applications that they have had at least three months of experience in manual work involving strength and physical effort.

Further information and application forms may be obtained from the executive secretary or the Secretary, Board of U. S. Service Examiners at the Joliet post office.
